REMARKS

THIS Catalogue forms the fifth part of the library of the Hon. Samuel W. Pennypacker, recently Governor of Pennsylvania. It embraces his extraordinary collection of books relating to the Quakers, including "Truth Advanced," the first book printed in New York. And printed by William Bradford. Many that are excessively rare, relating to the Keith controversy; Bishop's New England Judged, the first edition; the very rare and celebrated Battle-Door, by George Fox and others, which was written in defense of the Quakers' "Thee" and "Thou," as well as many other works of George Fox, the founder of the sect; the writings of William Penn, George Whitehead, Francis Bugg, and other noted followers and opponents of Fox. They are mostly all first editions, and quite a number are the only copies known. The Quaker element being so intimately associated in connection with the early settlement of the Colonies, makes this gathering of unusual interest to the historian of America, and we venture to assert that it is the most important offered the American public. After these follow THE PUBLICATIONS OF THE SOWER PRESS OF GERMANTOWN, PHILADELPHIA. Governor Pennypacker has long enjoyed the reputation of having the most complete collection of the issues of this press in existence, commencing with Padlin's "EINE EMSTLICHE ERMAHNUNG," a broadside printed in 1738 and the first issue of this celebrated press, it follows down to the last, including the finest known copy of the "ZIONITISCHER WEYRAUCHS HUGEL," Sower's first book. Fine copies of the three Bibles printed in 1743, 1763, and 1776—in the first is a printed flyleaf by Sower, which is to be found in no other copy, and, of course, makes this unique. The second is excessively rare, and thought by good authorities to be the most uncommon of the three, whilst I take the ground that the latter (1776 edition) is the rarest of the lot, from the fact that fewer copies of that edition have passed through my hands in the last forty years. It is a well-known fact that the major portion of the edition, while in sheets, was used by the Continental Army for cartridge paper. Consequently, fewer copies of this edition were sold than of the two former editions. However, the series is of exceeding interest, and the 1743 edition bears the distinction of being the first Bible printed in a European language in America. The seven New Testaments, which are included in the collection, are probably one of its most remarkable features, as they all appeared before any English Testament was published in this country. The first was published in 1745; the second in 1755; the third in 1761; the fourth in 1763; the fifth in 1764; the sixth in 1769, and the seventh in 1775. It is the only complete set in existence, whilst that of 1764 is entirely unknown to all bibliographers, and of the editions of 1745, 1755, and 1769, there is only one other copy of each known, and they are in the library of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. The series of almanacs "DER HOCH-DEUTSCH AMERICANISCHE CALENDAR" commence with that of 1741, and, with several breaks, run to 1778, whilst "TOBLER'S PENNSYLVANIA TOWN AND COUNTRYMAN'S ALMANACK" commences with the first in 1756 and runs (with the exception of 1760) to 1761. Among the other publications are many that are unique, as well as of great historical interest. After this follow the publications from the various presses of the little inland towns of Pennsylvania, and whilst these, as a rule, date back only to the first quarter of the nineteenth century (a few, of course, dating in the last quarter of the eighteenth century), they are nevertheless of peculiar interest, from the fact that they form almost a complete history of early printing in Pennsylvania, and all are, more or less, rare and can justly be termed the "incunabulae" of our State. In most cases the books are of a religious character, and in the German or Pennsylvania Dutch language, and illustrate the great moral character of our early "Pennsylvania Dutch" settlers.

The last portion of the Catalogue is devoted to FIRST AMERICAN EDITIONS. These include a fine copy of the First Edition of Shakespeare, 1795-6; the First Edition of Irving's Knickerbocker's New York, 1809; the First Edition of the Federalist, 1788; the Proposed Book of Common Prayer, 1785; fine copy of The Aitken Bible, 1782, being the first Bible printed in English in America; the FIRST Edition of Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield, 1772; the First Edition of Gulliver's Travels, 1736-7; the First Edition of Josephus, 1773-1775, which, to complete, called into requisition no less than four different presses; The First Edition of Sterne's Works, 1774, and many other first editions of American and English authors.

The Catalogue has been compiled with valuable bibliographical information, and should attract the attention of collectors and librarians everywhere. The collecting of these books has been the life work of Governor Pennypacker, and, being one of the earliest on the field, he has been enabled to gather the treasures enumerated herein, many of which could not be duplicated.

Truth Advanced in the Correction of Many Gross & hurtful Errors; wherein is occasionally opened & explained many great and peculiar Mysteries and Doctrines of the Christian Religion. By George Keith. Whereunto is added a Chronological Treatise of the Several Ages of the World, etc.
Small 4to, contemporary calf. (Cracked.) Printed in the Year 1694
Collation: Title, Contents (2), Preface (6), pp. 1-184, a chronological account, pp. 1-32.

Hildeburn says of this book: "The first book printed in New York, Bradford's earlier publications having been only pamphlets or broadsides. It was probably issued in April or May, 1694."

In the Almanac for 1694 it is said: "The Laws will be speedily printed," while Truth Advanced is announced as "now on the press."

This copy is a fine, crisp one throughout, with the exception that the words "TRUTH ADVANCED, IN THE" is cut from the top of title, a piece cut from the margin of the first page of the preface, and a few leaves time stained. It ranks in this country with the same degree of rarity as a Caxton does in Europe. It is really the "incunabulae" of American typography. It is the rarest of all the Keith items. SEE FACSIMILE TITLE.

QUAKER TRACTS IN DUTCH. By James Nayler, Edward Burroughs, George Fox, Francis Howgil, James Parnel, Isaac Penington, Stephen Crisp, George Keith, William Ames, John Higgins, Margaret Fell, William Caton, John Higgins, James Park, Pieter Hendrick, Jacob and Isaac Jacobsy, William Penn, Benjamin Furley, Christopher Birkhead, and others. 65 pieces.

Small 4to, parchment. In 1 vol.

1658-1672

This collection of sixty-five Quaker tracts are bound together in parchment, and were evidently collected by one of the early Dutch Quakers, possibly Benjamin Furley. They are neatly printed, and are separated by numbered parchment clippings. Many of them are not in Smith's catalogue, and it is not probable that the collection could be duplicated. Most of them were written to, or against, the Mennonites, and are invaluable in their relation to the Pennsylvania emigration.

4to, half morocco.

Christoph Saur, Germanton, 1738

An excessively rare broadside. The first issue of the Saur Press, bearing an imprint, and there is little doubt that it is the first thing he printed, and therefore the earliest specimen of printing in German type ever done in America. Saur wrote to the "Geistliche Fama," in Europe, November 17. 1739: Where shall I find words to praise the good God. So great are my obligations to Him, may my all be to his service and the honour of his name. This was in weakness my thirst and desire, because of the many blessings I have received since I have been here and through my whole life, I have therefore also wished to begin the German printing establishment here which it bought for me and set here, Now I could find no more suitable Vehiculum to make it known through the land than first to print an Almanac of which only the Title page I send you together with the print of a Translation from the English." The translation from the English is the present broadside. Had the almanac been then complete, there seems to be no reason why he should not have sent it instead of only the title page. Only two copies of this broadside on a single sheet have been preserved. These were cut apart, one going to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania and the other to Governor Pennypacker. This copy has been slightly injured on the lower right-hand corner.

- 348 1739. ZIONITISCHER WEYRAUCHS HUGEL ODER MYRRHEN Berg. Worrinnen allerley liebliches und wohl reichendes nach Apotheker-Kunst zu bereitetes Rauch-Werck zu finden, etc.

Thick small 8vo, full red crushed levant, gilt backs, elaborate gold tooling on sides, broad dentelle borders, edges gilt in the rough. In morocco case, lined with chamois skin, by Lortic, of Paris.

Christoph Saur, Germanton, 1739

The finest known copy of the first book printed by Saur, and the first book printed in German type in America. This book contains a preface written at Ephrata, Pa., 14th of Fourth month, 1739, which, with the title page, covers fourteen pages, seven hundred and ninety-two pages of hymns, and fourteen pages of index. It is dedicated "To all solitary Turtle-Doves cooing in the wilderness as a spiritual harp—playing in the many times of divine visitation." There are a number of facts in the bibliographical history of the Weyrauchs Hügel, any one of which would be enough to make it a remarkable publication. It was the first book printed in German type in America. It was the first book from the justly celebrated and prolific colonial press of Christopher Saur, of Germantown. A letter from Germantown, dated November 16, 1738, and published in the "Geistliche Fama," a European periodical of the Inspired, says: "We have here a German book-publishing house established by Saur, and the Seventh-day Baptists have had a great hymn book printed of old and new hymns mixed." In rather a curious way it led to the establishment of the Ephrata press. The thirty-seventh verse of the four hundredth hymn runs as follows:

Sehet, schet, schet, an!
 Sehet, sehet an den Mann!
 Der von Gott erhoeret ist,
 Der ist unser Herr und Christ.

Which literally translated is:

Look, look, look,
 Look, look upon the man;
 He is heard by God;
 He is our Lord and Christ.

The compositor asked Saur whether he thought that more than one Christ had appeared. Saur inquired of him why he suggested such an idea; when the man pointed out this verse and said it appeared to him that by it Conrad Beissel, the founder of the Ephrata Cloister, meant himself. Saur wrote this to Beissel, and asked whether it had any foundation; whereupon Beissel replied to him that he was a fool. This language did not please Saur, who soon after issued a pamphlet censuring Beissel, saying, among other things, that his name contained the number 666 of the beast of the Apocalypse, and that he had received something from all the planets—"from Mars his strength, from Venus his influence over women, and from Mercury his comedian tricks." Beissel became quite angry, and one of the results of the widening breach was a new press at Ephrata. The Weyrauchs Hügel is the largest and most important collection of the hymns of the Ephrata Cloister. Many of them were written there by Beissel and others, but unfortunately it is not possible, except in a few instances, to determine the authorship of particular hymns. Christian Hoehn, "a pious and God-fearing woman," who died an inmate of the Cloister at an advanced age, wrote those upon pages 465 and 456, beginning "Wenn mir das Creutz will machen Schmertzen," and "Ich dringe ein in Jesu Liebe." A manuscript book, beautifully written and illuminated, in the possession of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, contains the music to which these hymns were sung.

As the edition was small and the book was in common use for devotional purposes, it has become extremely scarce, nearly all of the few known copies being imperfect. For accounts of it see the Deutsche Pionier, vol. VIII., page 47, and Dr. Seidensticker's paper on "Die Deutsch-Amerikanischer Incunabula," in the same volume, page 475. SEE FACSIMILE TITLE.

349 Another copy.

Small thick 8vo, contemporary calf.

Christoph Saur, Germantown, 1739

26. This copy formerly belonged to Conrad Beissel, the founder of the Ephrata Cloister. Bound with it are seventy-one pages of hymns in manuscript in his handwriting. August 11, 1742, he presented it to Johannes Hildebrand, one of the ablest and most active men in the Cloister, who wrote a number of books. Hildebrand has written in it a note of the presentation, and also an additional hymn. It belonged to Dieterich Dishong in 1784 and Johannes Weber in 1851.

Facsimile Title Lot 360.

But one other copy known. Nesler, speaking of Zinsendorff, who arrived at Germantown December 30, 1741, says: "Jan. 7, 1742.—Immediately after his arrival he prepared for publication a small selection of hymns old and new, it was entitled 'Hirtenleider von Bethlehem,' etc. Jan. 8.—George Neisser took this selection to Christopher Saur's Printing Office in Germantown. * * * Mar. 5.—The Hirtenleider von Bethlehem came from Saur's Press. * * * Mar. 6.—Fifty copies were sent to Philadelphia and fifty to Frederic for distribution in the townships." SEE FACSIMILE TITLE.

- 361 1742. AUSBUND, DAS IST. Feliche schoene Christliche Lieder Thiel.

Christoph Saur, Germantown, 1742

10. Very rare. The finest copy known. Has bound with it Imbroich's Confessio oder Bekantnuss. * * * Ein Warhafftiger Bericht von Bruden in Schweitzerland, in dem Zurcher Gebeit. The Martyr Spigel of Van Brnght, part II., page 917, of the Ephrata edition, tells us that in September, 1645, Jeremias Mangola sent down to Amsterdam a little book containing an account of the persecutions in the Palatinate and Switzerland of the Mennonites. This book has been lost in Europe, and is unknown there. Most of these people later came to Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and there must have been a copy of it in manuscript or print among them, because an examination of the "Bericht" added by Saur to the "Ausbund" proves it to be the lost work. No copy of the original has ever been found. Its preservation by Saur has given us much interesting information in detail concerning Pennsylvania families.

10. 362 1742. Another copy.

12mo, calf, with clasps.

- 363 1751. The same.

12mo, calf, one clasp missing. Christoph Saur, Germantown, 1751

Mit Jedes Capitels kurtzen Summarien, auch beygefügeten vielen richtigen Parllelon; Nebst einem Anhang Des dritten und vierten Buchs Esra und des dritten Buchs der Maccabaer.

4to, oak boards, with brass corners, one clasp missing.

Christoph Saur, Germantown, 1743

First edition of the Bible printed in America in European tongue. Magnificent clean copy. Saur has printed on the flyleaf: "Abraham Staudt gebhort diese Bibel, Ist gebohren den 17 Augusti 1740." With this addition, this copy is unique. The following is Saur's prospectus of the Bible:

CHRISTOPHER SAUER'S PROSPECTUS TO HIS GERMAN BIBLE, 1742.

WHEREAS Numbers of the Dutch people in this province, especially of the New Comers, are thro' mere poverty unable to furnish themselves with Bibles in their own language, at the advanced price those which are brought from GERMANY are usually sold at here; Therefore CHRISTOPHER SAUER of GERMANTOWN, proposes to print a High Dutch Bible in large Quarto, and in a Character that may be easily read even by old Eyes. And several well-meaning people having promised to contribute something towards the Encouragement of the Work in general, that the Books may be offered cheaper to real poor persons whether Servants or others; Notice is hereby given, that the said Work (God willing) will be begun about the end of this Instant APRIL; and that some Judgment may be made of the Quantity necessary to be printed, all persons who are enclined to encourage the Work, or to have one or more of the said Bibles, may subscribe before that Time with the above said CHRISTOPHER SAUER in GERMANTOWN, or with ANDREW BRADFORD in PHILADELPHIA. 2s and 6d is to be paid down towards each Bible (for which Receipts will be given) and the Remainder on Delivery of the Books, which 'tis expected, will be in about a Twelvemonth. If no Charitable Contributions towards it are received, the Price of each Bible will not exceed 14 Shillings, and it shall be as much Less as those Contributions will enable the printer to afford: of which Contributions a fair Account shall be given to the publick.

Germantown, March 26, 1742.

- 366 1763. BIBLIA, DAS IST. Die Heilige Schrift Altes und Neues Testament, etc.

4to, calf, oak boards, clasps. Christoph Saur, Germantown, 1763

Second edition. Original binding, one clasp missing. Magnificent clean copy. This edition is thought by good authorities to be scarcer than the first. Of this edition Saur says: "The Holy Scripture called the bible now appears for the second time in this American land in the German language, openly in print, to the honor of the German people, since no other people can show that the Bible has been printed in this part of the world in their Language." The last leaf of the "Register" has been repaired.

- 367 1776. BIBLIA, DAS IST: Die Ganze Gottliche Heilige Schrift Alten und Neuen Testament, etc.

4to, calf, oak boards, clasps. (Rebacked.)

Christoph Saur, Germantown, 1776

The third edition. Title rebacked, corner off one leaf, a few pages repaired on margin. A good copy of this very rare edition. I have always contended that this is the rarest of all the Saur Bibles, as the major portion of the edition, while in sheet, was used by the Continental Army for cartridges. Consequently fewer copies of this edition were sold than of the two preceding, and in my experience of forty years I have handled fewer copies of this than of the other editions.

- 368 1743. GULDIN, SAMUEL. (Gewesenen Predigers in den Drey Haupt-Kirchen zu Bern in der Schweiz) Sein Unpartheyischs Zeugnuiss Ueber Die Neue Vereinigung alles Religions-Partheyen In Pennsylvanien.

12mo, half morocco.

Christoph Saur, Germantown, 1743

- 369 1743. Another copy.

12mo, half buck, lacks last leaf.

Very rare. The only known perfect copy. It was written against the attempt of Count Zinzendorf to unite the religious sects of Pennsylvania, by Guildin, who had been a preacher in the three head churches of Berne, Switzerland.

- 370 1744. DIE NICHTIGKEIT DER WELT UND DES ZEITLICHEN Lebens, Wieauch, die Wichtig-und Nothwendigkeit der wahren Wiedergetburt Zur unenlichen Glucksuligkeit und Ewigem Leben. Kurtzlich beschreiben von einem Englischen Autor, und ins Teutsche ubersetzt.

12mo, half morocco, uncut. Christoph Saur, Germanton, 1744

From the numerous manuscript corrections this is believed to be the translator's copy. He was probably Melchior Kriebel. THE ONLY KNOWN COPY. Not in Hildeburn.

381 cards in the original calf case. (C. Saur, Germantown, 1744)

This curious publication consisted of three hundred and eighty-one cards, 3 7-8 inches long by 2 1-8 in breadth, upon each of which is printed a text of Scripture and a verse, setting forth some moral precept. The old Germans meeting together socially upon Sunday afternoons would, in turn, draw a card and read what injunction fortune had in store for them. The pious author described it as a lottery—

"In which no man can ever loose

The Blanks which you may there refuse

Are worth the highest prize you choose."

The cards were fitted into a leather box. Being of light paper and easily lost and destroyed, they are now exceedingly rare. There are only four other sets known, all of which are more or less imperfect. This set has all the cards and five blanks in the original box in fine condition. No. 280 being erroneously printed, was reprinted. Both are here.

2 vols. 12mo original calf, in morocco case.

The collation corresponds with that given by Mr. Hildburn in his admirable bibliography of the "Issues of the Press in Pennsylvania," and contains the "Resolution of Congress," which will not be found in all copies.

The first volume is in perfect condition, clean and stainless. The leaves in chapter II Kings unserved. Last leaf of second volume injured and rebaked. Newspaper clippings inserted.

It is a well-known historical fact, that, in consequence of the embargo laid upon American commerce during the Revolutionary War, the BIBLE became an exceedingly scarce book. MR. ROBERT AITKEN, a Patriotic printer and bookseller of this city, undertook at his private expense to supply the constant and urgent demand for the work, by publishing the edition that is now popularly known as "The Aitken Bible." The circumstances attending the publication of this edition, and the discouraging obstacles encountered by Mr. Aitken in accomplishing his laborious task, are vigorously described by an anonymous author of the following interesting article published in the "Freeman's Journal," for November 26, 1782:

"I can hardly express the feelings I experienced when I found that a complete edition of the HOLY SCRIPTURES, in our vernacular tongue, has been printed amongst us. The circumstances attending this arduous task are so extraordinary that the faithful historian cannot fail to rank it, both in its design and execution, amongst the most remarkable civil events of the present Revolution. What may we not expect from the abilities of this country in respect to literary undertakings, when we consider that this design has been executed in the midst, as it were, of conflagration, murder, brutality, and a general destruction of the works of nature and art?"

"THIS EDITION of the HOLY SCRIPTURES is the only one that was ever undertaken in America at the expense of an individual, unless we except the GERMAN BIBLE, printed some years ago by Mr. Sower, at a time when this country enjoyed a profound peace. As to Mr. Eliot's 'Indian Bible,' printed many years ago in New-England, it is well known that the whole expense was borne by the corporation for promoting the Gospel in New-England. How great then are the public indebted to Mr. Aitken, who, at the most imminent risque of his private fortune, with very little support and patronage, and actuated by a generous zeal for the advancement of the moral interests of mankind, engaged solely in this very expensive and laborious task. What discouraging prospects for the completion of his work must the editor have had from time to time in the course of this cruel and desolating war?—More than twenty towns and villages of note have been made fuel for the flames which British inhumanity has kindled; the avarice of our enemies has plundered a much greater number; and no less than nine of the capital cities of these states have been in possession of the enemy; amongst them was PHILADELPHIA, and yet, under all these disadvantages, A COMPLETE, AN ACCURATE, AND ELEGANT EDITION OF THE BIBLE WAS PUBLISHED IN THIS VERY CITY, in four years from the time of the evacuation by the British.

"The VERY PAPER that has received the impression of these sacred books, was manufactured in Pennsylvania, the whole work therefore, is PURELY AMERICAN, and has risen, like the fabled Phoenix, from the ashes of that pile in which our enemies supposed they had consumed the liberties of AMERICA."

8 vols. 12mo, half red morocco, gilt, top edges gilt. Philadelphia: Printed and Sold by Bioren and Madden, 1795.

A very good copy of this excessively rare set of books. The title of Vol. VIII. has been repaired, and the title of Vols. II. and IV. are water stained, whilst Vol. VII. has an extra plate by Seymour not in any other copy. There are more copies of the original 1623 folio in existence than there are of the first American edition. SEE FACSIMILE TITLE OF VOL. I.

First American edition of the separate play by Shakespeare. [The portrait has been cut off on the left-hand margin. This play was taken from the first American Shakespeare with a separate title, doubtless to supply the stage. Unknown to bibliographers.]

12mo, half morocco.

John Bioren, Philadelphia, 1801

First American edition of this separate play of Shakespeare, and no doubt from the same origin as the preceding lot. The title calls for a portrait, but this copy has none. Like the preceding, it is unknown to bibliographers.

2 vols. 8vo, original contemporary calf. (Rebacked.) London: Printed for Benj. Motte, at the Middle Temple-Gate, in Fleet-Street. MDCCXXVI—XXVII.

Fine, clean copy of the first edition. Exceedingly rare. The title of Vol. II. differs from that in Vol. I. In the printer's address on Vol. II. "in Fleet-Street" is left out. This is a peculiarity of the first edition. Each volume is separately paginated. This copy is in a remarkably clean condition. The book being very popular, most copies through that reason are in a dilapidated or imperfect condition.
